

Geography
Autumn – East Anglia			Spring - Norway			Summer – Amazon Basin
skills Using maps, atlases and computer mapping to locate and describe features studied Name and locategeographical regions and their identifying physical characteristics and key topographical features and understand how some of these aspects have changed over time Describe and understand types of settlement, land use, economic activity Key topographical features including coasts and change over time Describe and understand types of economic activity, energy			skills Describe and understand key aspects of human geography, including; types of settlement and land use and economic activity. Understand geographical similarities and differences of a region of the UK and a region in a European country. Using maps, atlases and computer mapping to locate and describe features studied Describe and understand key aspects of physical geography including climate zones, biomes and vegetation belts.			skills Using maps, atlases and computer mapping to locate and describe features studied. Describe and understand key aspects of: physical geography, including: climate zones, biomes and vegetation belts. Describe and understand key aspects of: physical geography, including: rivers and the water cycle Describe and understand types of settlement, land use, economic activity
Final Outcome Understand the human and physical features of this region and know why and how it differs from our region.			Final Outcome			Final Outcome
Week 1	2	3	Week 1	2	3	Week 1	2	3
to locate and describe the East Anglia region in the UK, by using maps and atlases. to begin to understand the weather and climate in this region. How is a region defined and where is the East Anglia region? How can we find out about the main types of landscape found in this region? How does the weather influence this region?	to begin to understand that landscape and soils have taken a long time to develop. to use geographical vocabulary to describe the distinctive physical features of East Anglia. What is physical geography? What do you know about the history of the landscapes of East Anglia?	to investigate human features and understand the types of jobs people do. How different are towns in East Anglia to the home locality? What types of jobs do the people do in the region? What are human geographical features of this region?	To locate and describe Norway. Where is it? How does it fit into Europe and the rest of the world? Does anyone live in the North? Locate Honingsvaag a town and area above the Arctic Circle.	What climate does Norway have and which climate zone does the North belong to? What are the world's climate zones? Begin to record and compare daily weather from Honingsvaag and here.	Who lives in the area? How have these people changed their lifestyle to adapt to the harsh climate? What jobs to people do today? How does it compare to our parent's jobs?	to locate North and South America and understand that many environmental regions are found on the South American continent. to identify The Amazon Basin in Brazil by using maps and atlases. to begin to understand the weather and climate in this region. What is the climate like in this region? Why is the Amazon rainforest called equatorial rainforest?	To begin to have an understanding of the complexity of the equatorial rainforest. to use geographical vocabulary to describe rainforests. How is the vegetation in a rainforest structured? How do the plants and animals work together to sustain the rainforest?	to begin to have an understanding of the magnitude of the Amazon and its significance. to understand the water cycle. Which physical terms can be used to describe The Amazon Basin? What do you know about The Amazon River?
4	5	6	4	5	6	4	5	6
to begin to understand the process of erosion, transportation and deposition along the coastlines of East Anglia and the effects it has on the coastline.	To understand that electricity can be generated by offshore wind farms and identify places off the coast of East Anglia where they are located.		Why do people visit the area? What attractions are there? Produce a tourist brochure to encourage people to visit. What makes the Northern Lights work?	How are glaciers formed? How do they move and shape the landscape? What is happening to them as the climate warms?	What traditional clothes do the Sami wear? Design and make some traditional hats.	to investigate the indigenous people of the Amazon Basin. What does the term 'indigenous people' mean? Who are the Caboclo people? What are the threats facing the Caboclo people?	to understand that the Amazonian rainforest is a fragile and threatened ecosystem. To understand how individuals can help preserve the rainforest. What are the threats to the rainforest? How can I help preserve the rainforest?	